

Read Across America 2008

Read Across America

Name: _____ Room _____

Color in a state each time you read a book that is in some way connected to that state. The connection can be through setting, character, author, story line, etc... Let's see how many books our school can read. Return your map to the library by February 29, 2008. Don't forget to fill out the back. This sheet can also be used for the Reading Challenge this month, so be sure to record how many pages you read.
